LONDON DOUBTS REPORTS THAT
COOLIDGE DECLARED BRIT-
ISH OFFERS INACCEPTABLE

By C. P. WILLIAMSON
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

London, July 30.—Premier Stanley Baldwin's plans probably will make it impossible for him to confer with President Coolidge regarding the troubles besetting the Geneva naval limitations conference, the United Press was informed today.

London authorities were inclined to doubt the report sent here from Rapid City, that Mr. Coolidge had decided the British proposals were unacceptable. If such were a fact, it would be viewed here as "startling."

Especially surprise was expressed that there should have been any suggestion of a notification of the president's decision to the press before it was communicated to the conferees at Geneva.

Referring to the urgings in the local press that Baldwin should see the president, an official said such a meeting was "highly unlikely."

Washington, July 30.—The plenary meeting of the Geneva three power conference, scheduled for next Monday, is likely to be postponed until later next week, it was indicated at the state department today.

It was explained this government before going into what might be the final session of the conference, wishes to receive all possible information regarding the discussions up to this point making the delay necessary.

Delay of the plenary session which likely will postpone for a few days the termination of the Geneva conference, held no ray of hope for Washington officials. There is no intimation that new proposals will be discussed at length.

The conference seems at the breaking point, and all three powers represented are preparing to obtain the best possible exits. The position of England would seem best insofar as England made the last proposal.

On the other hand it is pointed out that the British proposal is practically not new at all, but a repetition of what has been found unacceptable by both of the other powers from the very beginning.

Detailed reports from Geneva will enable the state department to approve fully Ambassador Gibson's final address or suggest such modifications as would be considered desirable here, to show the United States viewpoint—that this country cannot be blamed for the failure of the conference.

Whether the conference will close or adjourn for a few months has not yet been decided. Neither has it been decided whether a joint statement will be issued or whether the various delegates will simply state the views of their respective governments.

Geneva, July 30.—American delegates to President Coolidge's naval limitations conference today submitted to the British a political clause which would enable the signatories to any treaty here to nullify their agreement.

It appeared possible that the plenary conference scheduled for Monday, at which the conference has been expected to collapse, would be postponed.

W. C. Bridgeman, first lord of the admiralty, told the United Press that he had received the clause. He indicated that its value would depend upon the treaty in which it was inserted, but said it obviously would be equivalent to a nullifying clause.

The clause, the United Press was informed, was designed to furnish the basis for a "temporary agreement" such as was suggested by Sir Austen Chamberlain, foreign secretary, in a speech this week in the house of commons.

On the British attitude toward this clause the fate of the conference seemed to depend. Secretary of State Frank B. Kellogg was understood to have approved the clause.

MOUNT VESUVIUS IS IN VIOLENT ERUPTION TODAY

Naples, July 30.—(UP)—Mount Vesuvius was in violent eruption today, spouting lava at the rate of three yards a second. The stream was about 15 yards wide. Explosions, hurling tons of incandescent rocks hundreds of yards into the air, were occurring at intervals of about 60 seconds as the fiery river tumbled down the mountain sides.

Although the flow from the crater was expected to reach the lowest point on the slopes in a few years, Professor Maladra, director of the Vesuvius observatory, issued a reassuring communique saying the eruption was not dangerous.

CORONER DEMANDS RIGID INSPECTION OF LAKE BOATS

AS RESULT OF THE SINKING OF SMALL EXCURSION
STEAMER

27 PERSONS CARRIED TO A WAT-
CHICAGO

Chicago, July 30.—(UP)—More rigid inspection of passenger boats plying the Great Lakes, especially small excursion craft, was demanded today by Coroner Oscar Wolf as result of sinking of the little steamer Favorite which carried 27 persons to death.

A coroner's jury composed of prominent citizens and licensed masters was to convene today to examine witnesses and survivors of the tragedy. A federal investigation will also start today and States Attorney Robert E. Crowe is conducting an independent probe.

So far, the only intimation that negligence contributed to the loss of life was discovery that some of the life preservers on the Favorite were 17 years old and so rotted by weather that they were unserviceable.

This is expected to be a matter of strictest inquiry at the inquest and the federal investigation. Steamship inspectors insist the life preservers they examined last spring were satisfactory.

A special meeting of the Chicago city council has been called for Monday at which agitation for better inspection of pleasure craft will be discussed.

Coroner Wolfe was quoted as saying there are many boats much less seaworthy than the Favorite which are engaged in carrying passengers on short excursions from Chicago. He urged more stringent federal inspection and city inspection ordinances in addition.

The Favorite's skipper, Capt. Arthur Olson, had been informally exonerated today of blame for the wreck as far as seaworthiness of his craft was concerned.

W. A. Hofnager, wealthy yachtman and hero of the rescue, commended Olson's courage and asserted the modern yacht, Doris, which saved most of the Favorite's passengers, would not have been able to ride the squall which caused the wreck, if it had not been of the low, enclosed cabin type.

Hofnager said Olson endangered his own life time and again to save passengers after the boat had capsized.

HEALTHY, RICH AND HAPPY HENRY FORD, 64

WELL KNOWN MANUFACTURER
CELEBRATES HIS BIRTH-DAY

ON EVE OF GREAT STRUGGLE
BETWEEN HIM AND GEN-ERAL MOTORS

Detroit, Mich., July 30.—(UP)—Healthy, wealthy and happy, Henry Ford today celebrated his sixty-fourth birthday preparing for the struggle reported imminent between him and the powerful General Motors Corporation.

Friends of the billionaire said he was almost ready for his last offense in the automobile industry. After the battle is fought, they believed, Ford will turn his production genius and vast resources to the making of airships, which, he said recently, "will shrink the world into a peaceful neighborhood where service will be the ruling passion of mankind."

But before he retires from the field in which he rose from a poor farm boy to the position of the world's richest man, Ford is going to produce an entirely different car from his previous machines and meet in the open market the foes who have forced him recently to curtail production to relatively nothing.

Ford is going to run the new cars out of his great factories at the pace of 1,000 or more a day and fight to out-sell his rivals. He will meet the competition of the many cars produced by General Motors, rumored to be strengthening its position for the battle.

But Ford does not think automobile production has reached the saturation point and there were indications today that he was almost ready for the fight to begin. There were, also, unconfirmed reports that General Motors will counter with a lighter car than any it now produces as soon as Ford announces his plans.

Ford has designed and tested his new car personally, with the assistance of course of experts in every branch of automotive engineering. He has surrounded the plans with the greatest possible secrecy but has driven the car about 400 miles around the private roads at his Dearborn plant, it was reported.

For week's Fords factories have been idle and the financial and motor world have been eager to learn about the new car. So reports about it have leaked out and the preponderance of these indicated today that the new car will be perhaps 35% cheaper than the present Ford. There will be more room inside the car and the motor will be sturdier, it was indicated. The cylinder block, for instance, was reported to weigh 16 pounds more than the block in the present car.

Ford's persistent denials that he has joined, as he put it, "the sextet," indicated there was no truth to the reports that it will be a six-cylinder car instead of a four. The simple operation features of the present car, it was said, will be retained. Some alterations have been made in his factories, and as these have been in progress for some time it was believed the plants were almost in readiness for Ford's final, master stroke.

Ford's birthday found him devoting more time to his great motor corporation than last year when dances and relics took part of his attention. Since the experiments started on his new car, he has been a visitor almost daily to the magnificent Dearborn laboratory and he has taken a keen interest in the actual work on the test models.

Whistling snatches of songs, he has walked, sometimes alone and sometimes with his son, Edsel, among the test machines, observing closely every operation of the skilled mechanics.

2 FIREMEN KILLED AND 8 INJURED AS WALL COLLAPSED

Atlanta, Ga., July 30.—(UP)—Two firemen were killed and eight injured here today when a wall collapsed while they were fighting a fire in a grain elevator. The dead are Capt. Clyde Hawthorne and J. B. Richardson. Both were crushed to death. Three of the eight injured were taken to a hospital in serious condition. The others suffered only minor bruises.

Washington, July 30.—The federal trade commission's U. S. Steel-Dupont-General Motors investigation will be open and above board in method, starting at once with requests for full statements of holdings, it was said today.

Later, hearings may be held by the commission to determine whether the companies' overlapping stock holdings are beneficial or otherwise to the public.

Commission officials today disclosed these aspects of the investigation ordered on motion of Commissioner Myers, adding that Dr. Francis Walker, chief economist for the commission, probably would seek complete statements from the three giant companies involved within a few days.

Indianapolis, July 30.—D. C. Stephenson reached Indianapolis at 7:30 A. M. today and was taken immediately to the Marion county grand jury room.

The former dragon of the Indiana Ku Klux Klan arrived from the Michigan City state penitentiary, where he is serving a life term for the murder of Miss Madge Oberholtzer. He was responsible nine months ago for charges that he and his lieutenants dominated the 1925 Indiana legislature and had state and city officials under their control.

The grand jury, for the first time in the history of the Stephenson investigation, was convened in extraordinary session on a Saturday to hear Stephenson's story, upon which the outcome of the inquiry depends.

FORD TO BUILD GIANT PASSENGER AIRPLANE, REPORTED

San Diego, Calif., July 30.—(UP)—Within a year the Ford Motor company of Detroit expects to complete a new giant 100 passenger airplane to be equipped with six 1,000-horsepower air-cooled motors, according to W. S. Mayo, chief engineer for the automobile company.

Mayo, visiting Pacific coast cities today with Jack Maddox who announced that he has organized an airplane passenger, mail, and freight service which will be established within the next 60 days between San Francisco, Los Angeles, San Diego, Imperial Valley and Phoenix, Ariz.

Service will start with one Ford tri-motored plane, but 12 machines will be used as soon as they can be delivered by the Ford company, Maddox said.

GOV. FULLER'S DECISION MAY BE DELAYED

SUDDEN ILLNESS OF HIS SON IS DISTURBING FAC-
TOR

HAD CONSIDERED SACCO-VAN-
ZETTI MURDER
CASE

Boston, July 30.—(UP)—Governor Alvan T. Fuller's decision in the Sacco-Vanzetti murder case, expected next Wednesday, may be delayed by the sudden illness of his son, Alvan, Jr. It was learned from a reliable source at the state house today.

Young Fuller was brought here by automobile from the governor's summer home in Rye Beach, N. H., early today and subsequently underwent a successful operation for appendicitis at Massachusetts general hospital.

In the past, Governor Fuller always has been deeply disturbed by any illness in his family, and while his son's condition was reported satisfactory, the informant believed the executive would be unable to complete the writing of his decision between now and Wednesday night.

The governor's decision will be written in the isolation of his summer home at Rye Beach, N. H. Though he was thought to have virtually concluded his inquiry, Gov. Fuller indicated he would interview a few more witnesses. For eight hours yesterday he listened to the final pleas of Atty. William G. Thompson and Atty. Herbert Ehrmann, defense counsel.

Today Sacco and Vanzetti, weak but determined, doggedly maintained their hunger strike in their cells in the Cherry Hill section of Charlestown state prison. It was the 14th day of Sacco's fast, and only one meal and an occasional cup of coffee or tea had passed Vanzetti's lips during that period.

Sacco was visited by his wife, Rosa, yesterday. She urged him to break his hunger strike, but in view of the fact that Sacco joined Vanzetti in refusing breakfast today, it was believed her plea had failed.

MORE AMERICAN TOURISTS TAKE CARS ABROAD

Washington, July 30.—(UP)—An increase of 100 per cent in American tourists taking their cars abroad this year was reported by the American Automobile association today. Increased facilities for shipment overseas and less red tape in crossing European national boundaries are held partly responsible.

IF DISARMAMENT CONFERENCE IS AN IMPASSE

IF BRITAIN CARRIES OUT ITS PROGRAM, AMERICA WILL FOLLOW

U. S. BELIEVES IN COMMENSUR-
ATE STRENGTHENING
OF NAVY

By PAUL R. MALLON

(United Press Staff Correspondent)
Rapid City, S. D., July 30.—This government will take steps to protect its standing among naval powers of the world if the disarmament conference reaches the expected impasse over arms limitation, it can be stated on credible authority.

If Great Britain carries out the program of sea expansion contemplated by her proposal at the Geneva meeting—amplifying her total cruiser and destroyer strength to 600,000 or 750,000 tons—the administration is expected to follow with a program for commensurate strengthening of the American navy.

President Coolidge is deeply disappointed at the apparent failure of the conference to accomplish limitation or reduction in sea expenditures. Mr. Coolidge inherited the disarmament policy from the late President Harding and has carried it forward with his program in American naval expenditures and had fought vigorously to prevent the naval cruiser building bill from being passed at last session of congress.

Until collapse of the conference is a certainty, no definite announcement concerning future American naval development will be made, but the United States is informed there is no intention on the part of the administration to permit Great Britain to build to further superior proportions over the American navy. Of course, this government will concede that extensive outlying colonies of the British Empire necessitate superior cruiser strength for domestic and commercial purposes alone, but if Great Britain intends to build to 600,000 or 750,000 ton cruiser and destroyer strength, something must be done by the United States.

Those who profess to outline this administration policy take care to make clear that this country will under no circumstances enter a naval race with Great Britain or that their statement of intentions should be considered a threat.

Framers of the administration policy, however, believe that national security will demand some action and congress is expected to be strongly in favor of building up cruiser strength, having manifested its sentiments during the last session.

Mr. Coolidge last night let it be known that the American delegation could never accept the British proposal, or any agreement which would permit enlargement of the world's naval resources. He takes the position that the conference was called to limit future armaments and that any suggestion of increasing them is contrary to the spirit of the conference.

AMERICAN AVIATORS BOMB OUTPOST OF SANDINO'S TROOPS

Managua, July 30.—(UP)—American aviators, aiding the land forces in pursuing the liberal general, Sandino, again bombed a small outpost of Sandino's troops yesterday, and several Nicaraguans were killed and wounded, according to reports reaching here today.

It was the third time Sandino's men had been attacked from the air. Being without defensive weapons against planes, the troops were reported to be deserting their leader.

Marines and loyal Nicaraguan national guardsmen were pushing still farther into the jungle in pursuit of Sandino, who refused to lay down arms in accordance with the Sacasa-Diaz peace terms.

A large bulk of the liberal party resents statements of General Moncada that Sandino and his followers are bandits. They accuse the former liberal chief, who capitulated when Stimson laid down his terms, of playing personal politics.

London, July 30.—Premier Stanley Baldwin's plans probably will make it impossible for him to confer with President Coolidge regarding the troubles besetting the Geneva naval limitations conference, the United Press was informed today.

London authorities were inclined to doubt the report sent here from Rapid City, that Mr. Coolidge had decided the British proposals were unacceptable. If such were a fact, it would be viewed here as "startling."

Especially surprising was expressed that there should have been any suggestion of a notification of the president's decision to the press before it was communicated to the conferees at Geneva.

Referring to the urgings in the local press that Baldwin should see the president, an official said such a meeting was "highly unlikely."

Washington, July 30.—The plenary meeting of the Geneva three power conference, scheduled for next Monday, is likely to be postponed until later next week, it was indicated at the state department today.

It was explained this government before going into what might be the final session of the conference, wishes to receive all possible information regarding the discussions up to this point making the delay necessary.

Delay of the plenary session which likely will postpone for a few days the termination of the Geneva conference, held no ray of hope for Washington officials. There is no intimation that new proposals will be discussed at length.

The conference seems at the breaking point, and all three powers represented are preparing to obtain the best possible exits. The position of England would seem best insofar as England made the last proposal.

On the other hand it is pointed out that the British proposal is practically not new at all, but a repetition of what has been found unacceptable by both of the other powers from the very beginning.

Detailed reports from Geneva will enable the state department to approve fully Ambassador Gibson's final address or suggest such modifications as would be considered desirable here, to show the United States viewpoint—that this country cannot be blamed for the failure of the conference.

Whether the conference will close or adjourn for a few months has not yet been decided. Neither has it been decided whether a joint statement will be issued or whether the various delegates will simply state the views of their respective governments.

Geneva, July 30.—American delegates to President Coolidge's naval limitations conference today submitted to the British a political clause which would enable the signatories to any treaty here to nullify their agreement.

It appeared possible that the plenary conference scheduled for Monday, at which the conference has been expected to collapse, would be postponed.

W. C. Bridgeman, first lord of the admiralty, told the United Press that he had received the clause. He indicated that its value would depend upon the treaty in which it was inserted, but said it obviously would be equivalent to a nullifying clause.

The clause, the United Press was informed, was designed to furnish the basis for a "temporary agreement" such as was suggested by Sir Austen Chamberlain, foreign secretary, in a speech this week in the house of commons.

On the British attitude toward this clause the fate of the conference seemed to depend. Secretary of State Frank B. Kellogg was understood to have approved the clause.

FORD TO BUILD GIANT PASSENGER AIRPLANE, REPORTED

San Diego, Calif., July 30.—(UP)—Within a year the Ford Motor company of Detroit expects to complete a new giant 100 passenger airplane to be equipped with six 1,000-horsepower air-cooled motors, according to W. S. Mayo, chief engineer for the automobile company.

Mayo, visiting Pacific coast cities today with Jack Maddox who announced that he has organized an airplane passenger, mail, and freight service which will be established within the next 60 days between San Francisco, Los Angeles, San Diego, Imperial Valley and Phoenix, Ariz.

Service will start with one Ford tri-motored plane, but 12 machines will be used as soon as they can be delivered by the Ford company, Maddox said.

GOV. FULLER'S DECISION MAY BE DELAYED

SUDDEN ILLNESS OF HIS SON IS DISTURBING FAC-
TOR

HAD CONSIDERED SACCO-VAN-
ZETTI MURDER
CASE

Boston, July 30.—(UP)—Governor Alvan T. Fuller's decision in the Sacco-Vanzetti murder case, expected next Wednesday, may be delayed by the sudden illness of his son, Alvan, Jr., it was learned from a reliable source at the state house today.

Young Fuller was brought here by automobile from the governor's summer home in Rye Beach, N. H., early today and subsequently underwent a successful operation for appendicitis at Massachusetts general hospital.

In the past, Governor Fuller always has been deeply disturbed by any illness in his family, and while his son's condition was reported satisfactory, the informant believed the executive would be unable to complete the writing of his decision between now and Wednesday night.

The governor's decision will be written in the isolation of his summer home at Rye Beach, N. H.

Though he was thought to have virtually concluded his inquiry, Gov. Fuller indicated he would interview a few more witnesses. For eight hours yesterday he listened to the final pleas of Atty. William G. Thompson and Atty. Herbert Ehrmann, defense counsel.

Today Sacco and Vanzetti, weak but determined, doggedly maintained their hunger strike in their cells in the Cherry Hill section of Charlestown state prison. It was the 14th day of Sacco's fast, and only one meal and an occasional cup of coffee or tea had passed Vanzetti's lips during that period.

Sacco was visited by his wife, Rosa, yesterday. She urged him to break his hunger strike, but in view of the fact that Sacco joined Vanzetti in refusing breakfast today, it was believed her plea had failed.

MORE AMERICAN TOURISTS TAKE CARS ABROAD

Washington, July 30.—(UP)—An increase of 100 per cent in American tourists taking their cars abroad this year was reported by the American Automobile association today. Increased facilities for shipment overseas and less red tape in crossing European national boundaries are held partly responsible.

IF DISARMAMENT CONFERENCE IS AN IMPASSE

IF BRITAIN CARRIES OUT ITS PROGRAM, AMERICA WILL FOLLOW

U. S. BELIEVES IN COMMENSUR-
ATE STRENGTHENING
OF NAVY

By PAUL R. MALLON
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

Rapid City, S. D., July 30.—This government will take steps to protect its standing among naval powers of the world if the disarmament conference reaches the expected impasse over arms limitation, it can be stated on credible authority.

If Great Britain carries out the program of sea expansion contemplated by her proposal at the Geneva meeting—amplifying her total cruiser and destroyer strength to 600,000 or 750,000 tons—the administration is expected to follow with a program for commensurate strengthening of the American navy.

President Coolidge is deeply disappointed at the apparent failure of the conference to accomplish limitation or reduction in sea expenditures. Mr. Coolidge inherited the disarmament policy from the late President Harding and has carried it forward with his program in American naval expenditures and had fought vigorously to prevent the naval cruiser building bill from being passed at last session of congress.

Until collapse of the conference is a certainty, no definite announcement concerning future American naval development will be made, but the United States is informed there is no intention on the part of the administration to permit Great Britain to build to further superior proportions over the American navy. Of course, this government will concede that extensive outlying colonies of the British Empire necessitate superior cruiser strength for domestic and commercial purposes alone, but if Great Britain intends to build to 600,000 or 750,000 ton cruiser and destroyer strength, something must be done by the United States. Those who profess to outline this administration policy take care to make clear that this country will under no circumstances enter a naval race with Great Britain or that their statement of intentions should be considered a threat.

Framers of the administration policy, however, believe that national security will demand some action and congress is expected to be strongly in favor of building up cruiser strength, having manifested its sentiments during the last session.

Mr. Coolidge last night let it be known that the American delegation could never accept the British proposal, or any agreement which would permit enlargement of the world's naval resources. He takes the position that the conference was called to limit future armaments and that any suggestion of increasing them is contrary to the spirit of the conference.

AMERICAN AVIATORS BOMB OUTPOST OF SANDINO'S TROOPS

Managua, July 30.—(UP)—American aviators, aiding the land forces in pursuing the liberal general, Sandino, again bombed a small outpost of Sandino's troops yesterday, and several Nicaraguans were killed and wounded, according to reports reaching here today.

It was the third time Sandino's men had been attacked from the air. Being without defensive weapons against planes, the troops were reported to be deserting their leader.

Marines and loyal Nicaraguan national guardsmen were pushing still farther into the jungle in pursuit of Sandino, who refused to lay down arms in accordance with the Sacasa-Diaz peace terms.

A large bulk of the liberal party resents statements of General Moncada that Sandino and his followers are bandits. They accuse the former liberal chief, who capitulated when Stimson laid down his terms, of playing personal politics.

ARRAIGNED ON CHARGE CONSPIRING
TO KILL RELATIVES

New Brunswick, N. J., July 30.—(UP)—A short, plump spinster of 40, graduate of the state normal school at Trenton, will be arraigned next week on an indictment charging conspiracy to kill her sister, brother-in-law and their farm hand.

The woman's father, estimated to be worth half a million, stood ready to pay his daughter's defense, although six weeks ago he was included by authorities in the list of those his daughter, Bessie Morse, plotted to kill.

Miss Morse's negro maid, Mamie Todd, 31, will be arraigned at the same time, on the same charge. Both were indicted yesterday.

It is alleged that Miss Morse plotted to kill her relatives to remove them as possible heirs of her father's fortune.

ARBITRATION TERMS
ARE ACCEPTED

New York, July 30.—(UP)—Complete agreement was reached today between the United Press, International News Service and Universal Service on the one hand, and the C. T. U. A. on the other, when both the managements and men accepted the recommendations of Judge Edward Owings Towne, acting as arbitrator.

A new contract between the two parties was drafted immediately to endure for two years from July 1, 1927.

BRAINERD 25 YEARS AGO

From the Daily Dispatch

JULY 30, 1902

Prof. Vath of Sauk Center is in the city making arrangements for the opening of his business college in Brainerd again this year. He will probably occupy rooms in the Columbian block as heretofore.

The Misses Dell and Mamie Reilly, Rose Poppenberg and Vivian Reilly returned this afternoon from Staples and Detroit where they have been visiting for some time.

Miss Rose Koop and her guest Miss Lulu Kleis of Duluth accompanied by Will Koop left this afternoon for Backus where they will enjoy a pleasant outing.

Mayor Halsted has appointed J. J. Howe, S. L. Bean, and Dr. Werner Hempstead, delegates to the Trans-Mississippi Commercial Congress which will be held in St. Paul, Aug. 19, 20, 21 and 22 of this year.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Howe and Miss Blanche Howe left for the Twin Cities this afternoon for a visit.

J. M. Elder left this afternoon for Detroit on business.

ARRAIGNED ON CHARGE CONSPIRING TO KILL RELATIVES

New Brunswick, N. J., July 30.—(UP)—A short, plump spinster of 40, graduate of the state normal school at Trenton, will be arraigned next week on an indictment charging conspiracy to kill her sister, brother-in-law and their farm hand.

The woman's father, estimated to be worth half a million, stood ready to pay his daughter's defense, although six weeks ago he was included by authorities in the list of those his daughter, Bessie Morse, plotted to kill.

Miss Morse's negro maid, Mamie Todd, 31, will be arraigned at the same time, on the same charge. Both were indicted yesterday.

It is alleged that Miss Morse plotted to kill her relatives to remove them as possible heirs of her father's fortune.

ARBITRATION TERMS ARE ACCEPTED

New York, July 30.—(UP)—Complete agreement was reached today between the United Press, International News Service and Universal Service on the one hand, and the C. T. U. A. on the other, when both the managements and men accepted the recommendations of Judge Edward Owings Towne, acting as arbitrator.

A new contract between the two parties was drafted immediately to endure for two years from July 1, 1927.

2 OF ENGLAND'S PRINCES NOW AT QUEBEC

ROYAL PARTY IS ACCOMPANIED BY PREMIER BALDWIN

CROWDS GATHER TO GREET THEM BENEATH COOL SUMMER SKIES

By MORRIS DE HAVEN TRACY
(United Press Staff Correspondent)
Quebec, July 30.—The Empress of Australia, bringing two of England's princes and Premier Baldwin to Canada, anchored beneath the great citadel of Quebec at 8:40 A. M. today.

Crowds were gathering beneath the cool summer skies of Quebec. Shipping was gaily decorated. Newspapersmen immediately prepared to board the ship. They were to be the first to greet the distinguished guests.

Quebec, Que., July 30.—The Prince of Wales, Prince George, Premier Baldwin and party landed in Quebec today, coming ashore at 10:02 A. M., from the Canadian Pacific liner Empress of Australia. Cheering crowds awaited them on the wharf. Formal welcoming ceremonies began immediately.

"When I left England," said Premier Baldwin, "I did not go until I was satisfied our delegates were going back to Geneva with fair hope of a solution. If the conference fails, I feel it will not be our fault."

Asked whether he expected to meet President Coolidge for a discussion, as has been suggested, he said he had heard nothing of it, and doubted if such a meeting would be arranged. The correspondents were the first to greet the premier, meeting him aboard the liner.

INNOVATION IN PROHIBITION ENFORCEMENT

Tampa, Fla., July 30.—(UP)—An innovation in prohibition enforcement methods—moving pictures of alleged scofflaws—is to have its test in Florida courts next week, authorities announced here today.

A two-reel picture purporting to show Tampa citizens entering rooms of the exclusive "Key Club," where liquor is said to be sold, will be given its premiere before Judge Leo Stalmaker in municipal court.

The idea of taking the movie resulted from failure of police to trap "Key Club" members in a raid conducted at the request of the wife of one habitue who said she was tired of her husband's devotion to his club.

Four employees and a quantity of liquor were all the raid disclosed.

Police decided to catch the members by taking pictures. Accordingly, a moving picture camera was concealed near the entrance and the furtive movements of members at the portal recorded.

At least a dozen of Tampa's most prominent citizens are said to be in the cast of the police movie. They are undecided whether the film is comedy or tragedy, but will find out when the court makes a ruling on its admissibility as evidence.

ALARMING REPORTS OF FLOOD CONDITIONS IN BRITISH INDIA

Bombay, British India, July 30.—(UP)—Alarming reports of flood conditions continued to be received today from the cotton producing areas of North Gujarat where many villages have been submerged.

It was estimated that 40,000 persons were homeless in the town of Ahmedabad and that number probably would be increased considerably if reports could be had from all the flooded areas.

Tremendous damage has been done to crops, but accurate estimates of losses of life and property were not available today.

Urges Airplane Field in Brainerd

To the Editor of the Dispatch:

In these days of wonderful and rapid development of airplanes throughout the United States and the world, it behooves us to consider the question of what particular interest it is to Brainerd. It may prove an entering wedge to an increase of business here. First, let us consider the question of establishing a suitable landing field for airplanes here with needful accessories and supplies.

The vicinity of Lum Park or the 80 acre tract donated to the city by Judge Holland may be found to be suitable and desirable. If not, other locations can be obtained but why stop at a simple landing place. Airplane shops are springing up in many places. Why not one in Brainerd? The small commercial and mail airplanes are soon to be with us. Let's make 'em here. Next month Little Falls is to hold one of the largest and most interesting celebrations in its history in honor of its most distinguished former citizen raised there, Col. Charles A. Lindbergh, now one of the most distinguished air champions of the world who flew alone without a stop across the great Atlantic Ocean, New York to Paris, the only one to do this.

I suggest that Brainerd join Little Falls in this historic celebration by sending a representative delegation to show our good will and friendly consideration for our nearby neighbor in the proudest day of their history—while they honor their former citizen and school boy, Charles A. Lindbergh, champion sky scraper and sea hopper. P. B. NETTLETON, Brainerd, Minn.

New plays, new people, new scenery, is what the theater-goers can look forward to for the coming seven day engagement of the Obrecht show.

Members of the company this year are: Christy Obrecht, Arthur McKool Obrecht, Dan Obrecht, Arthur Verner, Lola Davis, John McSullivan, Flossy Sullivan, Orin J. Brandon, John Metcalf, Carl Whyte, Polly Johnson and Virgil Asbjournson.

Ladies will be admitted free on Monday night only when accompanied with one paid ticket.

Plays for the weeks engagement are as follows:
Monday night—"Dear Old Dad."
Tuesday night—"Gorilla."
Wednesday night—"City Wives."
Thursday night—"Jack in the Pulpit."
Friday night—"Broken Toys."
Saturday afternoon matinee—"Rebecca of Sunny Brook Farm."
Saturday night—"Shoplifters."
Sunday night—"The Girl He Married."

The entire list of plays contain a great abundance of good, clean wholesome comedy.

To the theater-going public, the announcement of the presentation of Ralph Spence's "The Gorilla" means an opportunity to witness extraordinary entertainment. That's what it is. Dealing with the ever interesting subject of a mystery revolving around the movements of a famous criminal, "The Gorilla" has the added features of possessing an unusual amount of comedy, while at the same time packing a "thrill-punch" such as no play of modern or other times has ever had.

The "Christy" Obrecht Stock company will offer "The Gorilla" in their tent on Tuesday night.

SATURDAY, JULY 30, 1927

WE NEED AN AIRPORT IN BRAINERD

W. P. McFALL, Fargo flier, who made a sudden descent at Crooked lake and emulating the example of the trans-Pacific fliers Smith and his partner, picked out a tree and wrapped his plane wings around them, spent some time in Brainerd sizing up the "air" situation.

Mr. McFall has been a commercial pilot since 1921. His home is at Moorhead and the flying field he utilizes is located at Fargo. The municipal field is being established now, options for the ground and necessary buildings and equipment was contracted for early in July. The field is 160 acres in extent and located about three miles from the heart of the city. Previously the fliers utilized a small private field at the edge of town, which was about 20 acres in extent.

The regular marker for an air field is a crushed rock circle, painted white and about 40 feet in diameter. A line intersects the circle, extending from north to south. A field should have a minimum of not less than 60 acres. Such a field would be of service to the average lot of commercial planes.

Fargo was stimulated by the work of its two resident aviators and an aeronautical club was formed with a membership of 350 charter signers. Its object is promotion of aviation in the Northwest.

The flight of Colonel Lindbergh, the extension of airmail service, the attitude of the federal government to assist in furthering the movement to establish airports in every town of any consequence, is bringing air matters to the attention of the nation.

There are two routes out of the Twin Cities to Fargo. One is by way of the Great Northern tracks and the other by way of the Northern Pacific, which latter brings the flier through the Brainerd Lake Region.

Brainerd, if alert in establishing a satisfactory air field, will be in line to gain much Northwest airplane travel, and may also get on one of the regular airmail routes being established.

If the field is established before the middle of August, it may have the honor of an informal dedication by having Colonel Lindbergh fly over it.

WE WELCOME WEST CENTRAL DENTAL SOCIETY

THE DISPATCH, speaking in behalf of the town and lake country, extends a cordial welcome to the West Central Dental Society, now holding its fifteenth annual meeting here. May your deliberations be of value to you in professional lines, and may you enjoy your period of recreation in our lake country.

Odd about dentists, isn't it. It takes a pull to be one, for one must have a strong arm and wrist to jerk out refractory molars.

There is a wonderful psychology connected with the business. We have seen people with raging toothaches who entered the dentist's office, and shortly after seating themselves in the outer office the toothache evaporated.

Styles change in dentistry. We remember in the old days the practice was to pull them all from their sockets. Then came the period of save them all and fill them all. And then, fill them if possible and pull them if you must.

The nerve of a dentist is a well established fact. What the profession needs to do is to build up the morale and nerve of the patients. If people can be taught that the dentist is their best friend, we shall have better teeth. If the idea of regular visits to your dentist, from childhood on, is instilled in parents and children, it means a lot for the future welfare of the race.

In this regard the St. Cloud Dental society has done constructive work. They designed 12 dental health posters which depict the germ which causes the decay of teeth, the food on which it lives, namely sweet carbohydrates, which is really sugary substances of any kind. The sweet tooth habit carried to excess brings on tooth decay. These posters have been used with great success in the St. Cloud schools and it is the hope of the St. Cloud Dental society that their use may become general and do missionary work in the cause of dental health and preventive dentistry.

HITS ILLEGAL SHIPPING OF FISH

QUOTING from Twin City papers, open warfare against anglers who fail to observe the law in regard to transportation of game fish was in progress today in Minnesota, on orders of J. F. Gould, state game and fish commissioner.

Mr. Gould ordered his game wardens today to confiscate all fish dispatched through the mails or by express which did not conform to the state statute applying to transportation of game.

The statute provides that the fisherman catching more fish than he himself can use and desiring to send some to his home must "clearly state on the outside of the package the number and kind of fish contained therein, also his residence, fishing number, or identification card number." The address must be from himself to himself at his home address.

In the case of a nonresident, the law provides that his license transportation coupon must be attached to the package, and the address must be from himself to himself at his home address.

Express agents who accept packages wrongly marked will be held liable and prosecuted, Mr. Gould declared.

It behooves the tourists of the Brainerd Lake Region, anxious to send fish to their homes or friends or clubs or organizations to read up on this law and observe it. It is clearly illegal, according to the provisions enunciated, to make shipment of fish you caught to your friends or some club, for your address must be from yourself to yourself at your home address.

AIMS IN EDUCATION

THROUGHOUT the land there are many young people who have graduated from high school and are contemplating their next step in life. Many of them, continues the Mapleton, Minn., Enterprise, have in mind the continuation of study in college or university. They have been advised by their teachers and friends to go on with their studies, their parents are anxious to have them continue in school and dream of the time when they will complete the work of the higher institutions of learning with the same high credits that have marked the high school course.

This is all well in keeping with the high ideals of the American people if with the knowledge gained and the longing for more knowledge there has been instilled into the mind the fact that the use of knowledge is to make the individual of service to his fellow man.

Any student who attends a higher institution of learning

without the idea of better service to his fellow associates is an idler who is occupying a place intended for a more worthy citizen.

Many colleges and universities are recognizing this fact and are weeding out those who attend for the prestige rather than the serviceable knowledge which the diplomas from such institutions carry with them.

"The coat and pants do all the work," sentimentally remarks the Saturday Evening Post, "but the vest gets the gravy."

POLICE SUSPECT
SOMEONE STOLE
BATHTUB TOO

Denver, Colo., July 2.—(UP)—

Police today were expecting a telephone call with the message that someone had stolen a bathtub.

That one article was about all a persistent thief needed to complete his modern home.

The thief who apparently believes in stealing his home on the installment plan instead of buying it that way has been working since last April.

Police report stolen—10 sacks of cement, four kegs of nails, a complete set of carpenter's tools, 30,000 brick, 7,000 shingles and roofing beams, 100 bundles of corrugated iron, two mortar hods, a complete painting outfit and floor lamp.

The police are planning to attend the house warming when the thief has completed his house.

Colorado River Filmed for Buck Jones Feature

The Colorado river, which has been under nation-wide discussion on account of the bills now pending in Congress to store its waters behind a great dam in Boulder Canyon, was the scene of Buck Jones' earlier sequences in "Good as Gold," his latest Fox Film starring drama now at the Lyceum.

Lucky Amethyst

The amethyst, February's birthstone, is the most beautiful and noteworthy of all purple jewels. Described by a Fifteenth-century writer as "purple red in color medelyd wyth color of uiolette," it is one of the few precious stones that can, if one is superstitious, be worn at all times and in all places without incurring ill-luck. It is a favorite ring stone and is used by many as a lovers' pledge.

SATURDAY, JULY 30, 1927

WE NEED AN AIRPORT IN BRAINERD

W. P. McFAIL, Fargo flier, who made a sudden descent at Crooked lake and emulating the example of the trans-Pacific fliers Smith and his partner, picked out a tree and wrapped his plane wings around them, spent some time in Brainerd sizing up the "air" situation.

Mr. McFail has been a commercial pilot since 1921. His home is at Moorhead and the flying field he utilizes is located at Fargo. The municipal field is being established now, options for the ground and necessary buildings and equipment was contracted for early in July. The field is 160 acres in extent and located about three miles from the heart of the city. Previously the fliers utilized a small private field at the edge of town, which was about 20 acres in extent.

The regular marker for an air field is a crushed rock circle, painted white and about 40 feet in diameter. A line intersects the circle, extending from north to south. A field should have a minimum of not less than 60 acres. Such a field would be of service to the average lot of commercial planes.

Fargo was stimulated by the work of its two resident aviators and an aeronautical club was formed with a membership of 350 charter signers. Its object is promotion of aviation in the Northwest.

The flight of Colonel Lindbergh, the extension of airmail service, the attitude of the federal government to assist in furthering the movement to establish airports in every town of any consequence, is bringing air matters to the attention of the nation.

There are two routes out of the Twin Cities to Fargo. One is by way of the Great Northern tracks and the other by way of the Northern Pacific, which latter brings the flier through the Brainerd Lake Region.

Brainerd, if alert in establishing a satisfactory air field, will be in line to gain much Northwest airplane travel, and may also get on one of the regular airmail routes being established.

If the field is established before the middle of August, it may have the honor of an informal dedication by having Colonel Lindbergh fly over it.

WE WELCOME WEST CENTRAL DENTAL SOCIETY

THE DISPATCH, speaking in behalf of the town and lake country, extends a cordial welcome to the West Central Dental Society, now holding its fifteenth annual meeting here. May your deliberations be of value to you in professional lines, and may you enjoy your period of recreation in our lake country.

Odd about dentists, isn't it. It takes a pull to be one, for one must have a strong arm and wrist to jerk out refractory molars.

There is a wonderful psychology connected with the business. We have seen people with raging toothaches who entered the dentist's office, and shortly after seating themselves in the outer office the toothache evaporated.

Styles change in dentistry. We remember in the old days the practice was to pull them all from their sockets. Then came the period of save them all and fill them all. And then, fill them if possible and pull them if you must.

The nerve of a dentist is a well established fact. What the profession needs to do is to build up the morale and nerve of the patients. If people can be taught that the dentist is their best friend, we shall have better teeth. If the idea of regular visits to your dentist, from childhood on, is instilled in parents and children, it means a lot for the future welfare of the race.

In this regard the St. Cloud Dental society has done constructive work. They designed 12 dental health posters which depict the germ which causes the decay of teeth, the food on which it lives, namely sweet carbohydrates, which is really sugary substances of any kind. The sweet tooth habit carried to excess brings on tooth decay. These posters have been used with great success in the St. Cloud schools and it is the hope of the St. Cloud Dental society that their use may become general and do missionary work in the cause of dental health and preventive dentistry.

HITS ILLEGAL SHIPPING OF FISH

QUOTING from Twin City papers, open warfare against anglers who fail to observe the law in regard to transportation of game fish was in progress today in Minnesota, on orders of J. F. Gould, state game and fish commissioner.

Mr. Gould ordered his game wardens today to confiscate all fish dispatched through the mails or by express which did not conform to the state statute applying to transportation of game.

The statute provides that the fisherman catching more fish than he himself can use and desiring to send some to his home must "clearly state on the outside of the package the number and kind of fish contained therein, also his residence, fishing number, or identification card number." The address must be from himself to himself at his home address.

In the case of a nonresident, the law provides that his license transportation coupon must be attached to the package, and the address must be from himself to himself at his home address.

Express agents who accept packages wrongly marked will be held liable and prosecuted, Mr. Gould declared.

It behooves the tourists of the Brainerd Lake Region, anxious to send fish to their homes or friends or clubs or organizations to read up on this law and observe it. It is clearly illegal, according to the provisions enunciated, to make shipment of fish you caught to your friends or some club, for your address must be from yourself to yourself at your home address.

AIMS IN EDUCATION

THROUGHOUT the land there are many young people who have graduated from high school and are contemplating their next step in life. Many of them, continues the Mapleton, Minn., Enterprise, have in mind the continuation of study in college or university. They have been advised by their teachers and friends to go on with their studies, their parents are anxious to have them continue in school and dream of the time when they will complete the work of the higher institutions of learning with the same high credits that have marked the high school course.

This is all well in keeping with the high ideals of the American people if with the knowledge gained and the longing for more knowledge there has been instilled into the mind the fact that the use of knowledge is to make the individual of service to his fellow man.

Any student who attends a higher institution of learning

without the idea of better service to his fellow associates is an idler who is occupying a place intended for a more worthy citizen.

Many colleges and universities are recognizing this fact and are weeding out those who attend for the prestige rather than the serviceable knowledge which the diplomas from such institutions carry with them.

"The coat and pants do all the work," sentimentally remarks the Saturday Evening Post, "but the vest gets the gravy."

HAROLD KALLAND, OF CITY, HIGH GUN AT GRAND RAPIDS

3 BUNCH IN LEAD, NATIONAL LEAGUE RACE

BREAKS 196 OUT OF 200 TARGETS SHOT

ALSO HIGH IN THE $5 OPTIONS,
10 ENTRIES, TAKING $25
AS HIS SHARE

KALLAND'S LONG RUN OF 76 WAS
HIGH FOR THE SHOOT AT GRAND RAPIDS

The recent 34th annual registered shoot of the Itasca Gun club of Grand Rapids was another of the successful shoots put on by this club. It was a hot day, with hardly a breath of air stirring, and predictions at the start of the shoot all pointed to large scores on the 200 targets.

The shoot started with 13 squads, or 65 shooters, and four additional shooters shot during the day, making 69 shooters.

Harold Kalland, the Brainerd pointer, was again high gun, coming out with 196. Last year he won with 158 out of 160. He was also high in the $5 options, 10 entries, taking down $25 for his share. His long run of 76 was high for the shoot.

Gus Evander of Wheaton was second with 193. This is the first time Evander has got this far north in his shoots.

J. O. Felerabend of Gray Eagle was third with 191. Both he and his brother are excellent shots. A. H. Felerabend breaking 187.

Ed Micka of Hibbing, runner up in the state championship, was off form, but came out with 187. J. O. Felerabend was second in the options, and took down $15. Jaki Reigel of Deer River headed the club shooters with 187.

Captain Billy Fawcett's squad attracted a great deal of attention on account of his two boys, Roger aged 17, and Gordon 15.

George McCullough was third in the options, with 188.

Wick, a one-armed shooter from Omaha, Neb., accounted for 15 doubles. Herman Litchke broke 175 out of 200 for the first time and won a vacation.

Anthony, besides keeping everything running smoothly, found time to break 183.

Gordon Fawcett, 15 years old, broke 174.

August Kothe of Aitkin went straight in the third.

Gus Evander of Wheaton broke them all in the first, third, sixth and seventh frames. Roger Fawcett beat Captain Billy, who was a member of the Olympic trap team, by three targets. L. C. Campbell won high professional with 191.

ANNUAL CHICAGO RIVER MARATHON

40 SWIMMERS TO ENTER FOR
RACE OVER 3-MILE
COURSE

Chicago, July 30.—(UP)—Forty swimmers will enter the water this afternoon in the annual Chicago river marathon over a course of approximately three miles.

Johnny Weissmuller, national champion, is favored to repeat his sensational performance of last year, and win the race.

Out-of-town entries and Bob Holman, his I. A. C. teammate, will furnish Weissmuller's principal competition. Swimmers from outside the immediate Chicago district are: A. J. Thomsen, Lester Semmes and Royal Bethke, Milwaukee; David Borgeson, Muskegon, Mich.; John Kaahlu, Honolulu; J. M. Dithmer, Marion, Ind.

LOU GEHRIG NOW LEADS BABE RUTH

Yankee Stadium, New York, July 30.—(UP)—Lou Gehrig went on a home run spree today and knocked his 34th and 35th homers of the season in the first game of the Yankee-Cleveland double header. The first tied the home run record of Babe Ruth and the second put Gehrig in the lead.

The first homer came in the fifth and scored Ruth ahead of the batter. The second was in the eighth with none on base. Both were off Brown.

BASEBALL'S BIG FIVE

Babe Ruth had a perfect day with two doubles and a single out of three times at bat.

Gehrig connected solidly but once, making a single in three chances.

Hornsby's only hit in three tries was a double.

Cobb and Speaker each came through with a single in four times up.

NORTHEAST BLANKS THE I. O. O. F. 7 TO 0 IN A HECTIC GAME

FEATURED BY GOOD PITCHING
ON MOUND FOR N. E. BY
JARBOE

FOGELSTROM MET FOR 5 RUNS IN
FIRST INNING, THEN
STEADIED

Northeast blanked the I. O. O. F. Thursday night by the score of 7 to 0 in a one-sided game featured by splendid pitching of Jarboe for Northeast, who pitched his third game in a week.

The Northeast stayby allowed only four hits and struck out seven men, walking two. His curves broke over the plate in fine fashion and with his fast ball at its best, the N. E. crew was not in danger once throughout the entire game.

Fogelstrom was touched heavily in the first stanza when he allowed five runs on four hits, one walk and one error. The speed ball artist settled down after the first hectic frame and permitted only two hits in the next six innings.

A. Swanson and Eling collected two hits apiece out of the total six for the club. A. Swanson made a nice running catch of a wide forel off third base.

Northeast and South Side clash Monday evening at 6 o'clock in a game that should prove fast and interesting.

The box score follows:

NO ONE SEEMS ABLE TO BEAT
HER AT FOREST HILLS
TOURNAMENT

By HENRY L. FARRELL

(United Press Staff Correspondent)
New York, July 30.—"Helen Wills, British and American national champion, 1927." This seems to be a sure entry for the official tennis records.

Miss Wills, who has come to be known as Helen I. of Berkeley since the rise in the tennis ranks of her fellow towns-girl, Helen Jacobs, already has won the British championship at Wimbledon. There seems to be no one who can defeat her at Forest Hills for the American title. The ease with which Miss Wills defeated Miss Jacobs in the final round of the Essex tournament was significant principally because of what Miss Jacobs had done in the earlier rounds.

Miss Jacobs, young and inexperienced in stiff tournament competition, is not a match for Miss Wills now and it is doubtful whether she ever will be during the prime of the elder Helen, but Miss Jacobs nevertheless defeated Mrs. Molla Mallory, the national champion.

Mrs. Mallory, it would seem from her defeat by the young Betty Nuthall at Wimbledon and by Miss Jacobs in the Essex tournament, is through definitely and finally. Because of her temperament and her experience she was the most serious rival that Miss Wills had to consider when she started her come back.

PITTSBURGH, CHICAGO AND ST. LOUIS

PIRATES SHOW THE CALIBRE OF WHICH CHAMPIONSHIP
CLUBS ARE MADE

STAGE 3 RUN RALLY IN NINTH
AGAINST BROOKLYN. WIN
4 TO 3

(By United Press)
The National League situation was changed little by yesterday's games as all three leaders, Pittsburgh, Chicago and St. Louis, continued their close race by beating their opponents.

The Pirates showed the stuff of which championship clubs are made by staging a three run rally in the ninth against Brooklyn to win 4 to 3. L. Waner singled in the ninth, P. Waner doubled, Traynor tripled, Cuyler and Harris were passed for Wright but the latter hit a clean single and the game was over.

Similarly, the Cubs were trailing the Giants when they came to bat in the tenth, needing one run to tie the score again. Adams drew a walk, English singled and Adams raced to third. Wilson beat an infield bounder but Adams didn't try for home. Catcher Cummings dropped the ball when Adams crashed into him after an infield grounder. Adams scored and the catcher was bumped so badly he left the game.

Stephenson then singled for the winning run. The score: Cubs, 5; Giants, 4.

Haines held the Phils to four hits and the Cards had little trouble winning, 6 to 3. St. Louis took the lead in the third with a four-run rally after Philadelphia had scored one in the first.

The Yankee heavy hitting squad didn't let up in the New York Americans' game with Cleveland but their scoring machine was not working properly and the Indians won, 6 to 4. The Yanks got 14 hits to Cleveland's 11.

Detroit broke a tie with Washington with a home run in the tenth out the Senators tied again in their half. The Tigers repeated in the eleventh. Again the Griffs rallied and this time kept it until they had scored two runs and won the game, 5 to 4.

Although the Browns had won 10 straight from the Red Sox, Ruffing of Boston held the St. Louis Americans to six hits and the Sox won, 8 to 2.

Thomas of the White Sox was wild for three innings but settled down to beat Philadelphia, 6 to 4. It was his 14th victory of the season. Chicago took the lead with three runs in the fourth and held it throughout the game.

Minneapolis—Benton pitched good ball for Minneapolis while his mates were slugging three Milwaukee pitchers, and Minneapolis won, 10 to 3. The Millers drove Orwoll, leading the American Association pitchers, from the mound early in the game.

Louisville, Ky.—Riffe tripled with Wilkinson on first base in the eleventh inning of the Columbus-Louisville game and stopped the contest with a 6-5 victory for Louisville.

With Swanville leading in the first half of the Lake Region Baseball League, Brainerd had to remain content in accepting second place, but is now making every effort to come out on top for the second half and final honors.

Sunday the locals play Motley at 5 o'clock at the Municipal Diamond. Jimmy Richmond and Wally Engbretson are slated to pitch for the locals with Jarboe at his regular position at shortstop. Motley's lineup has been strengthened for the second half contests and will be out for Brainerd's scalp.

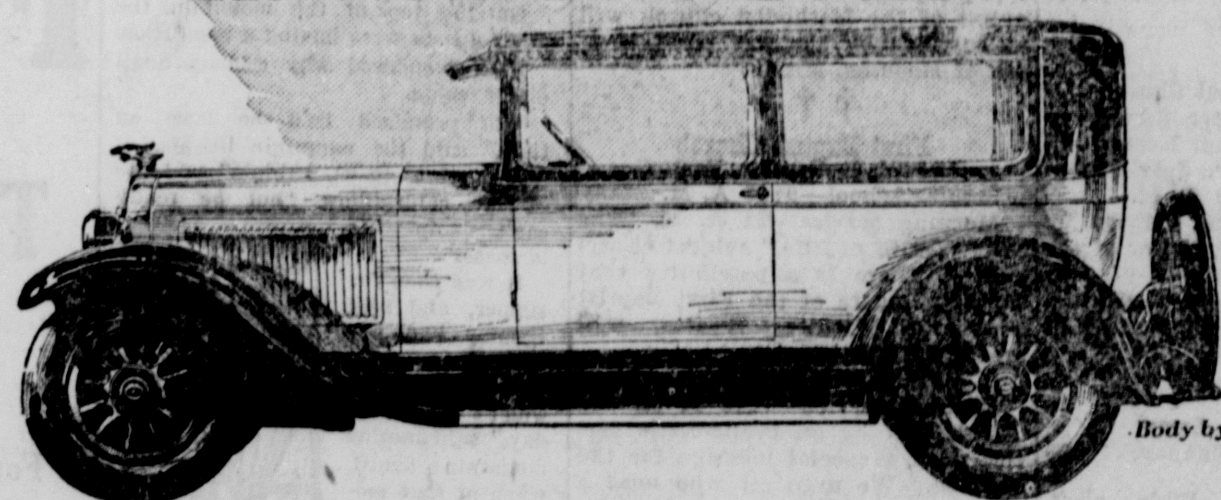

Mrs. Lee Mida Wins Western Golf Match

South Bend, Ind.—Mrs. Lee Mida, Chicago, won the Western Women's Golf association invitation meet by tying the course record of 83 in her second round. Her total was 169.

Columbus hit Deberry and Wilkinson fifteen times safely, but tight play on the part of the Louisville infield saved the day.

American design. American lines. American endurance for the roughest American roads—proved on General Motors' great American proving ground and built by American workmen using American precision-production methods!

A bigger, better, brilliantly beautiful car. New bodies—new chassis—new engine. New standards of performance, endurance, and value—and

NEW LOW PRICES!

There's mastery in every detail of the new Fisher bodies—the mastery of America's master body builders. Low, graceful, fashionable lines emphasized by sweeping full-color fenders. Arresting new Duco colors. Rich new upholstery.

In the chassis—a longer, deeper, heavier frame. A new and softer clutch. A new and smoother transmission. 4-wheel brakes. Smaller wheels (19"), larger tires (29x5.50), a longer wheelbase (117"), and an exceptionally low center of gravity. And a new engine of 212 cubic inches displacement—the largest used in a car of Oakland's price. Power—smoothness—snap and silence that will be the talk of all America from this day hence. A combination of features never before employed in any automobile engine:

—a 78½-lb. crankshaft, counter-balanced and incorporating the Harmonic Balancer—a crankcase of bridge truss construction—Oakland's famous rubber silencing principle—and a new combustion chamber design from General Motors' Research Laboratories.

A gasoline pump that supercedes the long familiar vacuum tank—a new and efficient system of crankcase ventilation—triple engine protection by gasoline, oil and air filters——and such factors of luxury and convenience as tri-clustered instrument panel, silver platinum engraving—a large new corrugated steering wheel—colored garnish rails and enough others in addition to make this advertisement read like a catalog!

HAROLD KALLAND, OF CITY, HIGH GUN AT GRAND RAPIDS

BREAKS 196
OUT OF 200
TARGETS SHOT

ALSO HIGH IN THE $5 OPTIONS,
10 ENTRIES, TAKING $25
AS HIS SHARE

KALLAND'S LONG RUN OF 76 WAS HIGH FOR THE SHOOT AT GRAND RAPIDS

The recent 34th annual registered shoot of the Itasca Gun club of Grand Rapids was another of the successful shoots put on by this club. It was a hot day, with hardly a breath of air stirring, and predictions at the start of the shoot all pointed to large scores on the 200 targets.

The shoot started with 13 squads, or 65 shooters, and four additional shooters shot during the day, making 69 shooters.

Harold Kalland, the Brainerd pointer, was again high gun, coming out with 196. Last year he won with 158 out of 160. He was also high in the $5 options, 10 entries, taking down $25 for his share. His long run of 76 was high for the shoot.

Gus Evander of Wheaton was second with 193. This is the first time Evander has got this far north in his shoots.

J. O. Feierabend of Gray Eagle was third with 191. Both he and his brother are excellent shots. A. H. Feierabend breaking 187.

Ed Micka of Hibbing, runner up in the state championship, was off form, but came out with 187. J. C. Feierabend was second in the options, and took down $15. Jack Reigel of Deer River headed the club shooters with 187.

Captain Billy Fawcett's squad attracted a great deal of attention on account of his two boys, Roger aged 17, and Gordon 15.

George McCullough was third in the options, with 188.

Wick, a one-armed shooter from Omaha, Neb., accounted for 15 doubles. Herman Litchke broke 175 out of 200 for the first time and won a vacation.

Anthony, besides keeping everything running smoothly, found time to break 183.

Gordon Fawcett, 15 years old, broke 174.

August Kothe of Aitkin went straight in the third.

Gus Evander of Wheaton broke them all in the first, third, sixth and seventh frames. Roger Fawcett beat Captain Billy, who was a member of the Olympic trap team, by three targets. L. C. Campbell won high professional with 191.

ANNUAL CHICAGO RIVER MARATHON

40 SWIMMERS TO ENTER FOR
RACE OVER 3-MILE
COURSE

Chicago, July 30.—(UP)—Forty swimmers will enter the water this afternoon in the annual Chicago river marathon over a course of approximately three miles.

Johnny Weissmuller, national champion, is favored to repeat his sensational performance of last year, and win the race.

Out-of-town entries and Bob Helleran, his I. A. C. teammate, will furnish Weissmuller's principal competition. Swimmers from outside the immediate Chicago district are: A. J. Thomsen, Lester Semmes and Royal Bethke, Milwaukee; David Borgeson, Muskegon, Mich.; John Kaahiu, Honolulu; J. M. Dithmer, Marion, Ind.

3 BUNCH IN LEAD, NATIONAL LEAGUE RACE

LOU GEHRIG NOW LEADS BABE RUTH

Yankee Stadium, New York, July 30.—(UP)—Lou Gehrig went on a home run spree today and knocked his 34th and 35th homers of the season in the first game of the Yankee-Cleveland double header. The first tied the home run record of Babe Ruth and the second put Gehrig in the lead.

The first homer came in the fifth and scored Ruth ahead of the batter. The second was in the eighth with none on base. Both were off Brown.

BASEBALL'S BIG FIVE

Babe Ruth had a perfect day with two doubles and a single out of three times at bat.

Gehrig connected solidly but once, making a single in three chances.

Hornsby's only hit in three tries was a double.

Cobb and Speaker each came through with a single in four times up.

Averages:	AB	H	Pct	HR
Gehrig	381	148	.389	33
Ruth	337	129	.382	34

NORTHEAST BLANKS THE I. O. O. F. 7 TO 0 IN A HECTIC GAME

FEATURED BY GOOD PITCHING
ON MOUND FOR N. E. BY
JARBOE

FOGELSTROM MET FOR 5 RUNS IN
FIRST INNING, THEN
STEADIED

Northeast blanked the I. O. O. F. Thursday night by the score of 7 to 0 in a one-sided game featured by splendid pitching of Jarboe for Northeast, who pitched his third game in a week.

The Northeast stayby allowed only four hits and struck out seven men, walking two. His curves broke over the plate in fine fashion and with his fast ball at its best, the N. E. crew was not in danger once throughout the entire game.

Fogelstrom was touched heavily in the first stanza when he allowed five runs on four hits, one walk and one error. The speed ball artist settled down after the first hectic frame and permitted only two hits in the next six innings.

A. Swanson and Elling collected two hits apiece out of the total six for the club. A. Swanson made a nice running catch of a wide forel off third base.

Northeast and South Side clash Monday evening at 6 o'clock in a game that should prove fast and interesting.

The box score follows:

AGAINST BROOKLYN, WIN
4 TO 3

(By United Press)

The National League situation was changed little by yesterday's games as all three leaders, Pittsburgh, Chicago and St. Louis, continued their close race by beating their opponents.

The Pirates showed the stuff of which championship clubs are made by staging a three run rally in the ninth against Brooklyn to win 4 to 3. L. Waner singled in the ninth, P. Waner doubled, Traynor tripled, Cuyler and Harris were passed for Wright but the latter hit a clean single and the game was over.

Similarly, the Cubs were trailing the Giants when they came to bat in the tenth, needing one run to tie the score again. Adams drew a walk, English singled and Adams raced to third. Wilson beat an infield bounder but Adams didn't try for home. Catcher Cummings dropped the ball when Adams crashed into him after an infield grounder. Adams scored and the catcher was bumped so badly he left the game.

Stephenson then singled for the winning run. The score: Cubs, 5; Giants, 4.

Haines held the Phils to four hits and the Cards had little trouble winning, 6 to 3. St. Louis took the lead in the third with a four-run rally after Philadelphia had scored one in the first.

The Yankee heavy hitting squad didn't let up in the New York Americans' game with Cleveland but their scoring machine was not working properly and the Indians won, 6 to 4. The Yanks got 14 hits to Cleveland's 11.

Detroit broke a tie with Washington with a home run in the tenth out the Senators tied again in their half. The Tigers repeated in the eleventh. Again the Griffs rallied and this time kept at it until they had scored two runs and won the game, 5 to 4.

Although the Browns had won 10 straight from the Red Sox, Ruffing of Boston held the St. Louis Americans to six hits and the Sox won, 8 to 2.

Thomas of the White Sox was wild for three innings but settled down to beat Philadelphia, 6 to 4. It was his 14th victory of the season. Chicago took the lead with three runs in the fourth and held it throughout the game.

Minneapolis—Benton pitched good ball for Minneapolis while his mates were slugging three Milwaukee pitchers, and Minneapolis won, 10 to 3. The Millers drove Orwoll, leading the American Association pitchers, from the mound early in the game.

Louisville, Ky.—Riffe tripled with Wilkinson on first base in the eleventh inning of the Columbus-Louisville game and stopped the contest with a 6-5 victory for Louisville.

Daddy's Evening Fairy Tale

BY MARY GRAHAM BONNER

MR. SNAIL

The mountain lizards had sent out invitations for a party.

He Was Much Delighted.

They had invited the lizards, the beetles, the caterpillars, the moths, and Mr. Snail, who was a great friend of theirs. Of course for such a large party they had made their plans weeks in advance, even before they sent out their invitations.

The party was to be given on the top of a high mountain.

It was a beautiful spot, the mountain lizards thought.

Then they hung little lanterns all around to make it "festive," they said.

The invitations they sent out read as follows:

"The mountain lizard family, at home on the top of the mountain Thursday afternoon from three until seven.

"P. S.—Please come early, as we're going to have wonderful games first, which will make you very hungry, and you'll then more than enjoy the good supper we've prepared."

When Mr. Sammy Snail opened his invitation he was much delighted.

"Ah, that's splendid!" he cried.

"I'll start early in the morning, so I'll get there on time, and though I'm not so very fond of games myself, I'll watch the others get tired and overheated, while I'll feel cool and rested when supper time comes."

"I'll have to be on time."

However, Thursday morning came, and Mr. Sammy Snail overslept.

He didn't wake up until 12 o'clock, and as he opened his eyes and yawned he saw from his shell the caterpillars and other guests crawling up the mountain side as fast as they could go.

Now, Sammy Snail lived half-way up the mountain side, so as he saw what time it was, he said to himself:

"Oh, well, I haven't very far to go! I'll just take another little nap."

So he turned over and went to sleep again.

On the top of the mountain the other guests were having a good time.

They wondered why Sammy Snail didn't come.

"He promised he'd be here on time," said the mountain lizards.

"He means to be, I think," said one of the caterpillars, "but he really can't help his laziness."

It was time for supper, and still Sammy had not arrived.

"I do hope he won't sleep all day," said another mountain lizard, when at that moment, puffing and panting, slowly crawling along came Sammy Snail.

"I hope I'm not late," he said. "I overslept."

At this all the party laughed, and Sammy laughed, too.

But when he saw he was just in time for supper he was quite satisfied, for what more could a snail want than plenty of sleep and then a delicious supper party without having to get up at crack of dawn, too?

Sammy Snail Overslept.

PUZZLES

What fish is to be found in every chicken house? A perch.

Why does a rooster resemble a cavalry officer? Because they both wear spurs.

What beam is of no use to a carpenter? A moon-beam.

What food represents jewels? Gems.

Why don't persons improve when in prison? Because the whole thing is more or less a sell (cell).

What is it that you give away all of it and can still keep all of it. Your promise.

What is that which you can keep even after giving it to somebody else? Your word.

Why did the umbrella stand? Because there was no sitting room.

TIM TULLEY, HOBO-AUTHOR, FACING CENSOR

Hollywood, Calif., July 30.—(UP)—Tim Tulley, hobo-author, is "mad" because his newest book, "The Circus Parade," is threatened with censorship in Boston, he said today.

"When the Watch and Ward society attempted to ban my last book I rather enjoyed it," he said, "but too much is too much. This time I am mad and will carry the fight to the highest court."

Tulley planned to leave for Boston today or tomorrow to fight against the censorship, he said.

The book is true to life, according to Tulley, so there is no reason why it should not be sold in Boston or any other city.

Boston, July 30.—(UP)—Mystery today surrounded reports from New York that "Circus Parade," latest production of the pen of Jim Tulley, had been banned in Boston.

"I never heard of the book," said Michael H. Crowley, Boston's book banning police superintendent.

"We are not operating on the book," said the office of Charles S. Bodwell, secretary of the Watch and Ward society.

"The book has not been banned to my knowledge," said Charles E. Latriat, member of the Boston booksellers' committee.

Reports that the book had been banned were based on a message received by the publishers, Albert and Charles Boni, Inc., of New York, from their Boston agent.

AUTHORS BARRED FROM CERTAIN INCOME TAX CUT

Washington, July 30.—(UP)—The internal revenue bureau ruled today that authors who obtain royalties from sale, lease or renting of an intellectual product are not paid for "personal services actually rendered" and cannot take advantage of the 25 per cent reduction in computing income taxes under the "earned income" clause. This ruling, officials said, will bring in many additional thousands of dollars annually to the treasury from literary people.

Vice President—Dr. W. A. Erickson, Brainerd.

Secretary-Treasurer—Dr. L. B. Hodgson, Breckenridge.

Dr. Charles Nelson of Fergus Falls was elected representative in the state Executive Council Council.

Fergus Falls was awarded the convention for next year. The western city was without competition in submitting its bid.

The district society voted to adopt the St. Cloud dental health and preventive dentistry school plan as is now used in St. Cloud schools.

After enjoying an afternoon at Breezy Point devoted to golf, trapshooting, tennis tournament, boating, swimming, etc., the dentists, wives and friends attended a banquet at the lodge. Cuisine and service were of the highest type. An orchestra played for dancing. Carnival favors were distributed.

Dr. W. A. Erickson of the local arrangements committee introduced Dr. George Ribbel, toastmaster of the evening, whose witty sallies were well received by the large audience.

Mrs. Mayberry, Boos and Shellman were shown special honors.

Mrs. W. H. Fawcett told a story of the screen actress who met a body of keen newspaperwomen and held her own in the combat of wits.

Captain W. H. Fawcett welcomed the convention to the lodge and told some stories.

Dr. G. I. Badeaux sang two baritone solos, accompaniments being played by Mrs. Walter F. Wieland.

Dr. Earl McGonigal, Royalton, played two trombone solos with the ability of a professional. Miss Ethel Drexler played the piano accompaniments.

Jack Williams of Minneapolis told a lot of jokes, many of which hit the dentists.

A violin quartet, the Misses Elsie and Georgia Drexler, Mrs. Moore and Miss Kiebler with piano accompaniment by Mrs. Ziebell, gave two fine selections, followed by a cornet solo by Mrs. Ziebell with violin obligato by three of the musicians and piano accompaniment by Miss Elsie Drexler.

Tournament awards were announced by Dr. W. A. Erickson, as follows, and the various contestants walked to the speaker's table and received their trophies.

Dr. M. J. Gobertich, Perham, scored 41 in golf and won the medal prize, a contra angle donated by the Emmett-Patterson Dental Supply Co. of Chicago.

Blind bogey prize, after drawings held, awarded as follows:

Dr. R. J. Allbright, Pelican Rapids, filling box porcelain donated by S. S. White Co. of Philadelphia.

Dr. B. G. DeVries, Minneapolis, $5 worth of laboratory work donated by B. E. Thoele Laboratory, St. Cloud.

BREEZY POINT PROGRAM GIVEN

Captain and Mrs. W. H. Fawcett and Three Guests Speak at Rotary Club

BRainerd IS GIVEN PRaise

Cooperation Accorded in Convention Is Given High Commendation

At the last meeting of the Rotary Club was a Breezy Point program supplied by Captain and Mrs. W. H. Fawcett in which five speakers gave fine addresses and stayed within the time limit of 30 minutes.

The occasion was a notable one so far that 23 visitors, the highest number recorded at a meeting this year, were present.

Mrs. W. H. Fawcett, introduced as the presiding genius of Breezy Point, was the first speaker and told of the deep interest Breezy Point has at all times manifested in Brainerd.

She thanked the Chamber of Commerce, the Rotarians and Lions and other people of Brainerd for assisting to make recent conventions such a success. She read a letter from Mrs. Guttererson, of Minneapolis, guide of the M Beta Phi convention, giving her thanks for the reception Brainerd had accorded the fraternity and for the later entertainment provided.

Mrs. Amy B. Onken, president of the Pi Beta Phi in a letter addressed to Mr. Goodwill of the passenger department of the Northern Pacific Railway Company voiced her thanks to Brainerd for the splendid publicity and reception accorded the society. Mrs. Spring, editor of the Pi Beta Phi magazine expressed her thanks for publicity and appreciated the untiring spirit manifested by Brainerd in entertaining their delegates.

"And these people are coming back to Minnesota because of the fine hospitality way Brainerd treated them," said Mrs. Fawcett. Already three international Greek letter societies have made arrangements for conventions at Breezy Point next year including the Kappa Kappa Gamma from June 22 to July 1, Delta Delta Deletas from July 5 to July 12 and the Kappa Alpha Theta from July 16 to July 21. Conventions which Brainerd will hold in conjunction with Breezy Point are the League of Minnesota Municipalities and the Lions International District convention.

Other conventions booked are Brown and Bigelow, Washburn-Crosby, Equitable Life, and other sales conventions and the Minnesota State Trapshooting tournament. The Beta Theta Pi is now negotiating for dates.

"It was a grand idea to meet the Pi Beta Phi fraternity special trains with a band, and all of them said that it was something that no town had ever previously so favored them," said Mrs. Fawcett.

Captain Fawcett introduced as a writer, publisher, war veteran, banker, trapshooter, golfer, and sports enthusiast who had made his dreams come true when he built Breezy Point said it gave him great pleasure to be at the Rotary meeting. He said he spent from seven to eight months a year in Crow Wing county and was liking it so well he would probably make his home permanently here.

He knew that his wife was quite an hotel manager and it was quite a surprise to see that she was such an orator.

Captain Fawcett suggested that the Brainerd Rotary club advertise the lake region at Minneapolis next year when International Rotary brought its thousands of delegates from all over the world.

F. E. Harwi, head of a wholesale company at Atchison, Kansas, past president of his Rotary club brought a message from his home town and state. He mentioned the pleasant drive of 1800 miles over fine roads from Kansas to the Brainerd Lake Region and expressed his appreciation of this north country. He mentioned the prosperous condition of Eastern Kansas where farming sections compared favorably with the best in Minnesota. The farmers have fine, modern country homes built of concrete or brick, they live comfortably, travel on concrete highways and their living has been raised to the highest standard. The banner crop of Kansas is wheat and this year the yield is especially good. He praised Kansas wheat, Kansas soil and Kansas climate.

Judge Lester L. Thompson, Des Moines, Iowa, member of the Canopus Club mentioned a variety of topics he had considered with the chairman of the program committee, ranging from farm relief, McNary-Haugen bill, Esch-Cummins bill, taming flappers and other things and cast them all overboard to utter a defense eloquent and convincing in behalf of northern pike.

"If it gives tourists keen pleasure to catch this species of fish why brag to him about some other kind which may have a more aristocratic backbone, fin, nose, or tail," said the judge.

Judge Thompson said he had visited many resorts in all parts of the United States, in England and on the continent and that in all his experiences and travels from Paris to Brainerd he considered Breezy Point the best.

Thomas W. Pangborn of Hagerstown, Maryland, manufacturer and banker expressed his pleasure at meeting with the Rotary Club and said that he had his attention called to the Brainerd Lake region while his wife was convalescing at Rochester and that since she had been in this lake region she was regaining her health and it was really a pleasure for both of them to be visitors here.

Among the countries visited by Mr. and Mrs. LaBar were Belgium, Holland, Germany, Switzerland, Italy, France and the British Isles.

They returned to New York last Monday after a pleasant voyage across the Atlantic on the Cedric.

Mr. LaBar will give an account of his trip and the International Rotary Club meeting at Tuesday meeting of the Brainerd Rotary Club.

Mr. LaBar stated this morning that he enjoyed the trip immensely and that he was pleased to return to Brainerd.

The First National bank of Brainerd, of which Mr. LaBar is president extended a welcome to Mr. LaBar this morning on his return to his executive duties.

ROBBED OF FORTUNE, GAINS ANOTHER AS STATE WITNESS

Hood River, Ore., July 30.—(UP)—Roy Orson, who came to Oregon from Minnesota a week ago to seek his fortune, had a good start on his road to wealth today with $21.60 profit he managed to make in being robbed by a couple of tramps.

A week ago as a freight train was passing through Hood River with Orson aboard, he was robbed of $230 by the two men. The robbers were kind enough to leave him 20 cents, however. After the train arrived in Portland, Oregon quietly went out to find a policeman.

As two men, Kenneth Cook and Charles Brandt, were sentenced to serve three years each in the Oregon penitentiary, the clerk of the court handed Orson a check of $23.90 for witness fees.

LISTS SOON AVAILABLE

Changes Made in Ladies Department and Field Crop and Garden Competitions

With the county fair less than a month away, the dates being August 25, 26 and 27, officials are planning on a bigger and better agricultural display than ever before.

The grounds at Pequot are being put into good condition, while announcement is made today that the premium lists will be off the press and available the early part of next week. Considerable revision is made in the lists this year particularly in the ladies department and in the field crop and garden competitions.

Members of the Minneapolis Symphony Orchestra who are vacationing at Symphony Retreat near Pequot are expected to be on hand to render programs.

HEDDA HOYT TELLS ABOUT PARASOLS

By HEDDA HOYT

New York, July 30.—(UP)—The parasol, a long-neglected factor in feminine fashions, has again become prominent due to the warm mid-Summer days. It has been years since parasols have been carried upon city streets and it probably will be years before they are considered essential for townwear again. The sunshade of today is primarily a resort item. Due to the present vogue for semi-tailored costumes, sunshades also have taken on more tailored stylings although color schemes and diversified handle treatments are decidedly emphasized.

Straw Parasols

One of the most attractive and popular parasols of the season is the model made of woven straw either in multi-colored pattern or with a neutral background enlivened with bright floral patterns. Most of these models are flat rather than rounded and handles are of painted wood and slightly longer than the handles of last year. These straw models are particularly attractive when straw shoes, handbag and hat are carried out in matching straw shades.

For sportswear what could possibly be more attractive than the leather parasols which one occasionally sees at seashore resorts and country clubs? They are lighter in weight than one would expect and are excellent for shedding both rain and sunrays. Some leather models resemble in coloring the Japanese oiled paper sunshades.

Cretonne parasols are also important this season due to the vogue for band-blocked and printed effects in dress linens. Plain colored taffeta parasols are also important with such shades as green, orchid and yellow leading above others.

Long crooked handles of painted wood are used on some models, the handles being of the same shade as the parasol. In some instances the ribs are gilded. Animal head handles are also popular, dog, parrot and duck's heads being most in demand. Ofttimes the animal head is fashioned so that the mouth opens at the pressing of a spring. Ears, likewise, may be manipulated so that they will sway backwards and forwards.

The cane umbrella is well liked for resort wear. Here, the umbrella folds and fits into a wooden case which may be used as a walking stick.

AIMEE HAS DISPUTE WITH HER MOTHER

DYNAMIC EVANGELIST THREAT-ENED TO RESIGN AS PASTOR

FOLLOWERS GIVE HER SUCH SUPPORT SHE WITHDRAWS RESIGNATION

Los Angeles, Cal., July 30.—(UP)—Aimee Semple McPherson's threat to leave her Angelus Temple, where she won international fame, today had proved to be but an uncalculated gesture.

The dynamic evangelist, who was involved in a dispute with her mother over finances of her gospel establishment, did resign last night as pastor of the temple. But 4,000 of her followers who heard the sermon that was intended as a "Swan song" cheered her without interruption for 15 minutes and the resignation was withdrawn.

Mrs. McPherson relented after the demonstration and told her congregation:

"I know now you have faith in me. I doubted it and that is why I resigned."

"Knowing you believe in me, I will never leave but will stay with you always."

The trouble in Angelus Temple, which culminated in the meeting last night was laid indirectly by Mrs. McPherson to her efforts to spread the Four Square Gospel to other sections of the country.

She left the temple the first time on a preaching tour and returned with her auburn hair bobbed in current fashion. Some of the congregation decided the coiffure was unseemly in a woman of divine inspiration and a noticeable group left the fold.

Mrs. McPherson went away again and had not completed her tour when rumors of discord reached her and she hastened home from Alton, Ill., to straighten things out. She found her mother, Mrs. Minnie Kennedy, in revolt against her daughter.

Yesterday, that quarrel, in which each said most unkind things about the other, was patched up and the mother and daughter reunited in the work of the temple.

"I'll never leave the temple again except to make brief visits to other Four Square Gospel churches, we will establish in various cities," the dynamic evangelist said at the meeting. "I'll stay with you until the end of time."

EDITOR TRIES TO ENTER JAIL TO SERVE SENTENCE

Muncie, Ind., July 30.—(UP)—George Dale, editor of the Muncie Post-Democrat, left today to storm the gates of the Indiana state prison farm at Putnamville a second time.

This time, unlike his first experience when he was turned down, he was expected to be accepted as a prisoner and granted the immediate parole ordered by Gov. Jackson. When he departed at 7:30 a. m. he was accompanied by a deputy sheriff and a policeman.

A negro, sentenced to the farm for petit larceny, also was in the party.

Dale tried to surrender himself at the farm a few days ago, but Supt. Ralph Howard refused him admission because he had neglected to bring commitment papers. Dale had to return to Muncie and await the pleasure of Sheriff Harry McCauley.

The governor's parole was from the 90-day sentence imposed by Judge Clarence Dearth when Dale criticized the judge in his paper.

JOINT RAIL-BARGE, RAIL-BARGE-RAIL ROUTES GIVEN O. K.

Washington, July 30.—(UP)—Through routes and joint rail-barge and rail-barge-rail rates between St. Paul and Minneapolis and Fargo, N. D., and points in Illinois, Indiana, Iowa and Missouri in connection with the Inland Waterways corporation between Dubuque, Iowa, and St. Paul and Minneapolis were found desirable in the public interest by the I. C. C. today. Rates and basis of divisions were prescribed by the commission today.

DESPONDENCY CAUSES SUICIDE

Owatonna, Minn., July 30.—(UP)—Despondency over ill health was believed to have prompted Claus Hamman, 63, prominent local business man, to commit suicide late Friday by hanging himself in his home.

Munich, July 30.—(UP)—Munich police issued an order today prohibiting a mass demonstration set for Monday to demand the freedom of Nicola Sacco and Bartolomeo Vanzetti.

3 VESSELS RUSH TO AID OF SHIP GROUNDED ON ROCKS

Seattle, Wash., July 30.—(UP)—Three vessels today were rushing to the aid of the Admiral Watson of the Pacific Steamship Line aground on a rocky shore of Ivory Island in Milbank Sound, 300 miles south of Ketchikan.

There were 52 passengers aboard the Admiral Watson which was southbound from Alaska according to advices reaching Seattle.

The ship, running into a heavy fog bank last night, struck the rocks early today.

No storm was reported and unless a westerly wind arise the ship will be safe, it is believed.

The passengers will be transferred to the Steamship Queen, southbound and will arrive in Seattle Monday. The Admiral Rogers was standing by while the Tug Salvage King of Victoria was rushing to get the ship from the rocks.

The Admiral Rogers carries a crew of 66.

CONVICT MANY FOR VIOLATING GAME LAWS

St. Paul, July 30.—(UP)—Thirty-six violators of the state game and fish laws were convicted and fined today by J. F. Gould, game and fish commissioner.

Game wardens seized 15 mink skins at the home of Mrs. W. L. Brooks, St. Paul, the woman being fined $100 and costs as a result.

Emil Wester, Calloway, paid a fine of $50 and costs for transporting three racoon skins illegally. Seven non-residents were assessed fines of $10 each for failing to obtain fishing license.

DAIRY

BIG POINTS IN JUDGING CATTLE

(Prepared by the United States Department of Agriculture.)

Dairy-cattle judging as practiced today is based on the supposition that a correlation exists between producing ability of the dairy cow and her conformation, says the United States Department of Agriculture. The principles of judging commonly used in selecting animals of the approved conformation are outlined in Miscellaneous Circular No. 99-M, just issued by the department. The publication is well illustrated with photographs illustrating various points in dairy-cattle judging.

The aim of the circular is to show the dairyman or the prospective dairyman, who has first made his selection and choice from the records of production, by what points of conformation he should be guided in selecting animals for his herd so that they may approach as nearly as possible the type selected by the breed association and followed generally by judges in the show ring. The publication will also serve as a guide for students in dairy husbandry who may wish to compete in judging contests.

Since the most important objective in dairy-cattle judging is to enable one to select more efficiently cows that will be economical producers of milk, it is well first to fix clearly in mind the points that are thought to be most closely associated with milk production and that are therefore the major points, and to leave those of less significance in the background. From the present knowledge of the relation of function to form, these points are dairy temperament, body capacity and mammary system. Of less importance from the production standpoint are general appearance and type, also size and condition. In addition there are what might be called the fancy points, closely associated with type, such as a pretty head, level rump, small horns, straight back, and well-balanced udder. These fancy points are only slightly, if at all, correlated with producing ability. They do, however, add to the beauty of the animal and thus enhance its selling value.

These points and the emphasis to be placed on them in judging animals are discussed in the circular in considerable detail. A copy may be obtained, as long as the supply lasts, by writing to the United States Department of Agriculture, Washington.

Parliament's Good Work

Mad parliament was the name given to the English parliament held at Oxford in the year 1258. The barons attended fully armed as for the battlefield. They forced Henry III to agree to the appointment of a council whose special work was to reform the government of the country.

Accidents Welcomed

An English motorist who knocked a man down gave him the car as compensation. Since the news got out drivers of high-priced autos are having quite a lot of trouble.—Boston Transcript.

What Every Girl Should Know

"WHAT EVERY GIRL SHOULD KNOW," with Patsy Ruth Miller, is a Warner Bros. picturization of this novel.

SYNOPSIS
Mary "Elatine" Sullivan—slender, beautiful, red-headed—is an orphan. Wally Mason, a young reporter, loves Mary. But she disbelieves in love. Mary keeps house for her brothers, David and Bobby. David, the family support, hopes Mary will get safely married. David is sentenced to prison for an auto fatality. The Charity Department takes Bobby. Wally proposes; Mary goes to New York, and gets a cloakroom job in a notorious night club. It is raided. In the morning the owner and dancers are left off with fines and reprimands.

CHAPTER IX—Continued

Joyfully they turned to go. It had been so much less harrowing than they had thought. No mention had been made of Mary, who had watched the proceedings with the beat of her heart sounding loud in her ears. When the others joyfully kissed and tightened their wraps to leave, she too, felt the sudden let-down, the dropping of the weight that had crushed her. She swallowed, and closed her eyes. Well, she thought. What an experience. Mary, walking the high places in a prison cell. She smiled a bit wryly. The feat had been difficult of accomplishment.

The judge leaned back in his high chair, wearily. He placed his spectacles more firmly on his nose, and frowned. "Miss Sullivan."

"Yes?" said Mary, startled. The sudden shock of her name spoken with such easy familiarity in surroundings such as these brought her hand to her heart. He had addressed none of the others by name. She felt the weight again, as though it had been lowered with a vicious jerk by unsympathetic hands from above.

"You will please remain, Miss Sullivan." The strange glances of the girls as they passed through the double doors hurt her. They were thinking—what were they thinking? That Mary had been the cause of this, perhaps? The doors closed behind Bessie, who waved a taunting good-bye.

The inquisition of the judge. She was Mary Sullivan, formerly of Garden City, was she not? Yes, oh yes.

Mary Sullivan, whose brother, David Sullivan, had been sent up for manslaughter? Yes. The foolishness of Mary's eyes as they held those of the judge. The mention of David acted as a buoy. "I have examined your case Mary Sullivan. I have concluded that owing to the unfortunate happenings that have taken place in your young life and considering the influences under which you are bound to react because of your extreme youth, it would be wisest and best for you to be placed in an institution such as the St. Mary's Home for Working Girls. There you will receive the care proper for one in your position and tender years."

Fortunately the court matron was standing behind Mary when the sentence was uttered. She placed a strong arm under her elbow when she sank. "It's all right," whispered Mary. "I shan't fail." Nevertheless her hand grasped the matron's arm as she was led from the court-room.

"You're leaving for the Home this afternoon," said the matron kindly. Mary looked so pitifully young there in the strong light from the high barred windows. "Would you like something to eat now to keep your strength up?"

"No," said Mary.

"Just a little cup of tea my dear. It will hearten you up wonderfully. Do. I've discovered that a hot cup of tea during the heaviest part of any day, it doesn't matter how heavy, will just make the blood flow again. Do. Just a little cup of tea. I've some on the burner now."

"No," said Mary.

FATAL ATTEMPT TO ESCAPE FROM REFORMATORY

St. Cloud, Minn., July 30.—(UP)—A fatal attempt by William Gregory, 21, Zumbrota, Minn., to escape from St. Cloud reformatory was revealed with the finding of his body in the Mississippi river near here late Friday.

reformatory farm, where they were trustees, several days ago.

Nelson was recaptured several hours after he swam across the river. He told authorities he saw Gregory disappear in the water. Dragging operations were then started by authorities.

Gregory was sentenced to one year at the reformatory for first degree larceny in Red Wing, Dec. 4.

AIMEE HAS DISPUTE WITH HER MOTHER

DYNAMIC EVANGELIST THREAT- ENED TO RESIGN AS PASTOR

FOLLOWERS GIVE HER SUCH SUPPORT SHE WITHDRAWS RESIGNATION

Los Angeles, Cal., July 30.—(UP)—Aimee Semple McPherson's threat to leave her Angelus Temple, where she won international fame, today had proved to be but an uncalculated gesture.

The dynamic evangelist, who was involved in a dispute with her mother over finances of her gospel establishment, did resign last night a pastor of the temple. But 4,000 of her followers who heard the sermon that was intended as a "Swan song" cheered her without interruption for 15 minutes and the resignation was withdrawn.

Mrs. McPherson relented after the demonstration and told her congregation:

"I know now you have faith in me. I doubted it and that is why I resigned."

"Knowing you believe in me, I will never leave but will stay with you always."

The trouble in Angelus Temple, which culminated in the meeting last night was laid indirectly by Mrs. McPherson to her efforts to spread the Four Square Gospel to other sections of the country.

She left the temple the first time on a preaching tour and returned with her auburn hair bobbed in current fashion. Some of the congregation decided the coiffure was unseemly in a woman of divine inspiration and a noticeable group left the fold.

Mrs. McPherson went away again and had not completed her tour when rumors of discord reached her and she hastened home from Alton, Ill., to straighten things out. She found her mother, Mrs. Minnie Kennedy, in revolt against her daughter.

Yesterday, that quarrel, in which each said most unkind things about the other, was patched up and the mother and daughter reunited in the work of the temple.

"I'll never leave the temple again except to make brief visits to other Four Square Gospel churches, which will establish in various cities," the evangelist said at the meeting. "I'll stay with you until the end of time."

Munich, July 30.—(UP)—Munich police issued an order today prohibiting a mass demonstration set for Monday to demand the freedom of Nicola Sacco and Bartolomeo Vanzetti.

3 VESSELS RUSH TO AID OF SHIP GROUNDED ON ROCKS

Seattle, Wash., July 30.—(UP)—Three vessels today were rushing to the aid of the Admiral Watson of the Pacific Steamship Line aground on rocky shore of Ivory Island in Milbank Sound, 300 miles south of Ketchikan.

There were 52 passengers aboard the Admiral Watson which was southbound from Alaska according to advices reaching Seattle.

The ship, running into a heavy fog bank last night, struck the rocks early today.

No storm was reported and unless a westerly wind arise the ship will be safe, it is believed.

The passengers will be transferred to the Steamship Queen, southbound to the Tug Salvage King of Victoria was rushing to get the ship from the rocks.

The Admiral Rogers carries a crew of 66.

CONVICT MANY FOR VIOLATING GAME LAWS

St. Paul, July 30.—(UP)—Thirty-six violators of the state game and fish laws were convicted and fined during the week, it was reported today by J. F. Gould, game and fish commissioner.

Game wardens seized 15 mink skins at the home of Mrs. W. L. Brooks, St. Paul, the woman being fined $100 and costs as a result.

Emil Wester, Calloway, paid a fine of $50 and costs for transporting three racoon skins illegally. Seven residents were assessed fines of $10 each for failing to obtain fishing license.

DAIRY

BIG POINTS IN JUDGING CATTLE

(Prepared by the United States Department of Agriculture.)

Dairy-cattle judging as practiced today is based on the supposition that a correlation exists between producing ability of the dairy cow and her conformation, says the United States Department of Agriculture. The principles of judging commonly used in selecting animals of the approved conformation are outlined in Miscellaneous Circular No. 99-M, just issued by the department. The publication is well illustrated with photographs illustrating various points in dairy-cattle judging.

The aim of the circular is to show the dairyman or the prospective dairyman, who has first made his selection and choice from the records of production, by what points of conformation he should be guided in selecting animals for his herd so that they may approach as nearly as possible the type selected by the breed association and followed generally by judges in the show ring. The publication will also serve as a guide for students in dairy husbandry who may wish to compete in judging contests.

Since the most important objective in dairy-cattle judging is to enable one to select more efficiently cows that will be economical producers of milk, it is well first to fix clearly in mind the points that are thought to be most closely associated with milk production and that are therefore the major points, and to leave those of less significance in the background. From the present knowledge of the relation of function to form, these points are dairy temperament, body capacity and mammary system. Of less importance from the production standpoint are general appearance and type, also size and condition. In addition there are what might be called the fancy points, closely associated with type, such as a pretty head, level rump, small horns, straight back, and well-balanced udder. These fancy points are only slightly, if at all, correlated with producing ability. They do, however, add to the beauty of the animal and thus enhance its selling value.

These points and the emphasis to be placed on them in judging animals are discussed in the circular in considerable detail. A copy may be obtained, as long as the supply lasts, by writing to the United States Department of Agriculture, Washington.

Parliament's Good Work

Mad parliament was the name given to the English parliament held at Oxford in the year 1258. The barons attended fully armed for the battlefield. They forced Henry III to agree to the appointment of a council whose special work was to reform the government of the country.

Accidents Welcomed

An English motorist who knocked a man down gave him the car as compensation. Since the news got out drivers of high-priced autos are having quite a lot of trouble.—Boston Transcript.

What Every Girl Should Know

By GISA PRUCHONE

Copyright, 1927, Warner Bros. Pictures, Inc.
"WHAT EVERY GIRL SHOULD KNOW," with Patsy Ruth Miller, is a Warner Bros. picturization of this novel.

SYNOPSIS

Mary "Elaine" Sullivan—stender, beautiful, red-headed—is an orphan. Wally Mason, a young reporter, loves Mary. But she disbelieves in love. Mary keeps house for her brothers, David and Bobby. David, the family support, hopes Mary will get safely married. David is sentenced to prison for an auto-fatal-ity. The Charity Department takes Bobby. Wally proposes; Mary goes to New York, and gets a cloakroom job in a notorious night club. It is raided. In the morning the owner and dancers are let off with fines and reprimands.

Joyfully they turned to go. It had been so much less harrowing than they had thought. No mention had been made of Mary, who had watched the proceedings with the beat of her heart sounding loud in her ears. When the others joyfully kissed and tightened their wraps to leave, she too, felt the sudden let-down, the dropping of the weight that had crushed her. She swallowed, and closed her eyes. Well, she thought, What an experience. Mary, walking the high places in a prison cell. She smiled a bit wryly. The feat had been difficult of accomplishment.

The judge leaned back in his high chair, wearily. He placed his spectacles more firmly on his nose, and droned, "Miss Sullivan."

"Yes?" said Mary, started. The sudden shock of her name spoken with such easy familiarity in surroundings such as these brought her hand to her heart. He had addressed none of the others by name. She felt the weight again, as though it had been lowered with a vicious jerk by unsympathetic hands from above.

"You will please remain, Miss

Robert! Oh young Robert! What good your silver lance now? Can your lance slash at heavy chains and cut through doors that are locked on the outside? The door was locked. The door was locked. Mary had been locked in from the outside. Mary was wicked, wicked wicked! Mary was to be sent to a home for working girls where an eye could be kept on her wanton youth. Wanton youth Mary had youth and because of it she was wanton. Oh for shame, Mary! Does Wally know that your youth is wanton?

"Miss. Miss." They were shaking her so that the wantonness might drop out. You can have that, but what shall I do with my youth?

"Miss. It's time to go."

Time to go? Time to go where? Time to go riding with Wally? Just a moment, just a moment Wally, while I powder my nose? "Why gild the lily," laughed Wally. Smuggled deep in the little green car, racing with the wind. How the car felt.

"Miss." They were shaking her again, shaking out her wantonness. Take it, take it, oh take it all, take everything I own for Cock Robin has killed the soul of Mary Sullivan, and what is left?

"If you don't get up dear, I will have to carry you out. Imagine carrying a great big girl like you? Carry me, Carry me as if I were a little girl. My mother carried me, my mother did. What ho, Sir Lancelot, and whom have you there? Tis Elaine, Sir Gwen, Elaine the fair, Elaine the lily-white whom I have found like the pallid lily for whom she is named, floating downstream. Floating downstream, Sir Lancelot? And how? Floating downstream easily, Sir. Gwen Floating downstream easily, for she has lost her wantonness. Has she youth, Sir Lancelot? She has youth, Sir Gwen, but it has become soiled with the slime from the depths of the river. Shameful, Sir Lancelot. Shameful indeed, Sir Gwen.

"I don't know what to do with her," helplessly. "I don't know what to do. She acts kind of dumb, Mrs. Brady."

"Poor child. I've always said, and I say it now, it ain't fair that such young ones should be left alone to be knocked around, it ain't fair and it ain't right. Well, it's her looks Mrs. Brennan. It's her looks that dragged her into that sink of sin. That kind of hair ain't been given to girls for no good purpose. And a Sullivan, too."

"I don't know what to do with her I swear, Mrs. Brady."

"Try a strong cup of hot tea. I've always said and I say it now. A good strong cup of hot tea—"

FATAL ATTEMPT TO ESCAPE FROM REFORMATORY

St. Cloud, Minn., July 30.—(UP)—A fatal attempt by William Gregory, 21, Zumbrota, Minn., to escape from St. Cloud reformatory was revealed with the finding of his body in the Mississippi river near here late Friday.

Gregory and Willard Nelson left the reformatory farm, where they were trustees, several days ago.

Nelson was recaptured several hours after he swam across the river. He told authorities he saw Gregory disappear in the water. Dragging operations were then started by authorities. Gregory was sentenced to one year at the reformatory for first degree larceny in Red Wing, Dec. 4.
